

CASSOPOLIS PUBLIC SCHOOLS
Sam Adams Elementary School
2022 – 2023 Student/Parent/Teacher Agreement

The State Title I Program requires each participating school district to have a Student-Parent-Teacher Compact. The purpose of this compact is to strengthen the relationship between home and school.

STUDENT COMPACT

As a Student I will:

Take responsibility for being the best student that I can be, and I will demonstrate this by:

- Coming to school with my materials and a ready-to-learn attitude.
- Showing trust, respect, and responsibility for myself, my classmates, adults and school property.
- Handing my work in on time and neatly done, following my teacher's directions.
- Following all school rules, even when walking to and from school or riding on the school bus.
- Completing all school work; have courage to do my school work with a growth mindset and seeking help when needed.
- Delivering all reports and notices sent by the school to my parents or guardians.
- Carefully handling all school technology and using only school apps, school games or school websites.

PARENT COMPACT

As a Parent I will:

*Make certain my child knows that I value education, and I will demonstrate this by:

- Understanding and supporting the school-wide expectations.
- See that my child is "on time" and in regular attendance at school; contact the office if my child is absent.
- Reading at home with my child, as well as practicing math facts. (daily? Is that needed for specific?)
- Encouraging growth mindset when students are completing work at home.
- Having open, timely communication with my child's teacher(s).
- Attend at least one parent teacher conference and one family night.

STAFF/SCHOOL COMPACT

As Staff we will:

Provide a safe, caring environment where all children can learn, and we will demonstrate this by:

- Having simple, common courtesy rules that will be enforced and respected so as to maintain order and safety for everyone.
- Imparting awareness, acceptance and appreciation of everyone in our community.

Form a partnership with parents for their children's education, and we will demonstrate this by:

- Encouraging hard work and striving for excellence, believing that all students can learn in their own way.
- Providing parents with feedback on their child's progress and behavior, both positive and negative.
- Providing parents with information regarding standards and current performance levels.
- Providing students and parents with a plan to achieve higher levels of learning.
- Developing opportunities to have parents involved at school.
- Providing students with the necessary skills required to move forward to the next level of education.
- Providing necessary assistance to parents so that they can help with homework.
- Providing a curriculum through Title 1, which supports the general education curriculum and maintains growth towards State Standards for your child.

Model the same behavior expected of students by:

- Exhibit trust, respect and responsibility for myself, my students, other adults, and school property.
- Following all district and school-wide expectations.
